

The map below shows Nârr's place (boxed in by the red line) on a much larger continent. Other than a report about the fabled "Ulaff's Bay" off to the northeast of Nârr that reads as:

"This bay is rumored to have been discovered by an early Dwarven trader named Ulaff centuries before the Aakken arose.

Tales say that he traveled northeast for over six months with the goal of mapping the northern world."

The unknown lands outside of Nârr are not in the story of AAKKENDÂG.
